Mr. Rahul Mascarnhas i/b Mulla & Mulla for the Plaintiff.

CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.
17th November, 2006.

P.C. :

On 25th September, 2006 the Court directed that the suit shall proceed for want of written statement. At that stage, counsel for the Defendant had made a statement before the Court that possibly the suit has been settled and an adjournment of two weeks was sought by the learned counsel for the contesting parties to verify the position. An adjournment was granted until 5th October, 2006. Again on 5th October, 2006 the Suit was adjourned by a period of one week. Today when the matter is called out, counsel appearing for the Plaintiff states that no instructions are forthcoming on behalf of the Plaintiff. As a result, the counsel has been unable to either file a compilation of dcouments or to file an affidavit in lieu of the examination in chief on behalf of the Plaintiff. The suit is accordingly dismissed for want of prosecution.
